Lathonia, Ga., August 11, 1887.

Gentlemen-1 have been afficied with ulceration of the legs ever since I was achild, the disease undoubtedly being hereditary, as my mother suffered from screening and palatid beyond the power of words to describe. My right leg particularly became hereafully affected. Finally, about fourteen years ago, the ulcers on my right leg had eaten through the flesh into the buse. In order to save ray life the doctors determined to amputate my leg below the base. The operation was successfully performed by Dr. H. V. M. Miller, of Atlanta, and Jr. W. P.
